

2018

James D. "Jim" Hayes

Educator ■ Coach ■ Community Leader

James D. "Jim" Hayes was a native of Los Angeles, raised in Glendale and a 1950 graduate from the University of Southern California, majoring in Social Science and Physical Education, receiving two Bachelor of Science degrees. He settled in Colton in 1952 and during his 34 year tenure in Colton Joint Unified School District schools where he taught social studies and government, and coached baseball and basketball. Hayes served two four-year terms as a Colton Councilmember playing a key role in the development of the Cooley Ranch area and instrumental in the establishment of the paramedic unit that is part of the city's fire department.